Sub-Division Officer.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, TOWN MUNICIPAL COUNCIL, CHINTAMANI.

Notification No. C. 191—37-38, dated 9th June 1938.

Notice is hereby given to the inhabitants of Chintamani Town that the Municipal Council of Chintamani are desirous of enforcing the following Bye-laws in respect of Slaughter-house under Section 48 (2) of the Town Municipalities Act, 1933. Any person objecting to the adoption of the Bye-laws may prefer his objection, in writing, to the President of the Municipal Council within one month from the date of publication of these draft Bye-laws in the Mysore Gazette, after which no objections will be entertained.

Slaughter-house Bye-laws.

The following Bye-laws for regulating the working of the slaughter-houses in all municipal towns in the State may be adopted :—

1. The Veterinary Inspector shall carefully inspect each and every animal brought for slaughter daily, whether for private consumption or sale to the public, and satisfy himself that such animals are perfectly healthy before he admits them into the slaughter-houses.

2. The Veterinary Inspector shall also examine the carcasses or animals slaughtered in the slaughter-houses and shall cause to destroy or bury at such time and place as may be appointed by the President any carcass or organ or any part of any carcass that he may find diseased and unfit for human consumption as wholesome food with the previous sanction of the President.

3. The Veterinary Inspector shall cause all carcasses stamped before they are removed to the licensed shops for sale. The Sanitary Officers shall be careful to see that all carcasses brought for sale to the market in their charge bear the slaughter-house stamp. The Municipal Officers in charge of markets shall report every case in which a carcass does not bear the said stamp and shall, at the same time, forward any explanations which the person in possession of such carcass may offer for the orders of the President.

4 Any person who slaughters any cattle, sheep, goat or pig which has not been inspected and passed by the Veterinary Inspector or slaughters before or after the hours fixed for the purpose or removes any carcass to the market or to any other recognised or licensed place of sale or to his house without the slaughter-house stamp or who offers any opposition or resistance to the Veterinary Inspector or his peons, or to the Municipal Officers in the execution of their duty, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

5. The Veterinary Inspector shall further see that the following conditions are strictly observed by the slaughter-house contractor.—

(a) That the contractor shall maintain the full establishment stipulated in his contract bond, for the removal of blood and all other refuse, and for the proper sanitation of the slaughter houses and should see that all collections of blood and refuse of animals slaughtered after 7-30 P.M. and before 6 A.M. are removed regularly every day.

(b) That the contractor shall provide daily a regular and sufficient supply of clean water so that there may be no cause for complaint of inadequacy of water for cleaning the carcasses and slaughter-houses.

(c) He shall also provide clean and dry sand to be strewn on the floor of the slaugher-house yards.—

6. An infringement by the contractor of any of the foregoing conditions, or those of his contract bond, or of any other conditions that may be imposed upon him, from time to time, by the President of the Municipal Council shall render the said contractor liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each offence, or to his contract being annulled by the President.

7. The Veterinary Inspector shall inspect the slaughter-houses daily between the hours of 6 and 7 P.M.

8. No carcass or any portion of a carcass of any cattle, sheep, goat or pig slaughtered outside the limits of the Municipality shall be sold in any of the Municipal markets or any part of the said station by the owner or person in possession thereof without such carcasses being first examined by the Veterinary Inspector and the prescribed fees being paid for the same, and whoever is found in possession of, vending such carcasses, or any portion thereof in contravention of these provisions, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

9. Under the authority already granted by the President, the Veterinary Inspector shall issue a permit to any person applying for permission to slaugter cattle, sheep or goat within the limits of the Municipality without license or without payment of any fee for the purposes of the following festivals or religious ceremonies. On such applicant furnishing sufficient grounds for the indulgence sought, the Veterinary Inspector should note in the slaughter-house return, on each and every occasion, that such permission is granted, the name and residence of the person to whom a permit has been issued, and number of cattle, sheep or goats allowed to be slaughtered.

Dasara.—(Hindus only).—One sheep or goat per house to one individual or any one member of a family, for two days only.

Akkika.—(Hindus or Mahomedans).—The ceremony connected with shaving the head of a child for the first time.—

Male Child.—Two sheep or goats.

Female Child.—One sheep or goat.

Sadkha.—(Hindus or Mahomedans).—Vow by or for a sick person. Cattle, sheep, or goat not exceeding one of any description of cattle or four either of sheep or goats.

Mannath.—(Hindustani) or Arike (Kanarese).—(Hindus or Mahomedans)—In fulfilment of vow made by or for a sick person cattle, sheep or goats, not exceeding one of any description of cattle, or four either of sheep or goats.

Bakrid.—(Mahomedans only)—Camel, cattle, sheep or goat not exceeding one to any one individual, or to any one member of a family for three days.

Pongal.—Second day of Pongal or Sankaranthi (for Hindus only)—One sheep or goat per house.

10. Any person who may require any number of cattle, sheep or goats, for slaughter, in excess of that given for any of the purposes mentioned in the foregoing section (a) shall obtain a permit from the Veterinary Inspector, and pay the prescribed fee for such number in excess of that allowed. Whoever without such permit and without the payment of such fee, slaughters any cattle, sheep or goats, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every such animal slaughtered, together with the amount of fee payable.

11. No cattle, sheep, goat or pig shall be slaughtered within the limits of the municipality for the purpose of any ceremony on account of the prevalence of any epidemic without a permit being obtained from the Veterinary Inspector, on payment of the prescribed fee. Whoever without such permit and without the payment of such fee, slaughters any animal for such purpose shall be liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every such animal slaughtered, together with the amount of the fee payable.
